11. 'The Human Robot' is a story set in the future when robots would perform all the menial jobs for humans. It shows how technology can make our lives comfortable but misusing it can cause many problems.

Ram Singh - 070 was a robot manufactured by Super Robots Plaza. There were three in built principles in his system : (1) He would always obey his master. (2) He would not harm humans. (3) He would not take harm to himself. His owner Prem Chopra used him for wrong purpose. He made him steal ornaments and precious gems. The police caught Ram Singh red handed. In the court, counsel Goel asked him some questions. But he did not answer them because if he told him the truth, he would betray his master. But if he did not tell the truth, he would harm people. Thus, he was in conflict with himself. In the end, he chose to break apart rather than telling a lie or betraying his master.

Thus, the inner conflict of Ram Singh - 070 brought his end.

OR 'I Love You Teacher' is a beautiful story showing how an ideal teacher can remove darkness from a student's life.

Miss Anne Sullivan was a teacher for the deaf and blind. She was kind, loving and caring. She changed Helen's life completely.

First, she taught Helen spellings through finger movements. Then she taught her to speak through the movements of the lips and the vibration in the throat. Then she taught her to read. First, she taught to read raised letters. Then she taught her to read Brail Script. She also taught her to use normal and Brail typewriter. She helped Helen even when her eyes were becoming weak. Helen requested her to take rest but she did not listen. She continued to help Helen. She lost her vision and became blind. She sacrificed her eyesight for Helen.

56. “Teachers are the angels who change our lives and shape our future.”

Indeed, it is true. Our teachers work hard every day and make us ideal citizens. There are many good teachers in my school. But Mr. Shah is my favourite teacher. He is different from other teachers. He is kind, helpful and hardworking. He is very punctual. He is always first to come and last to leave the school. He is always well dressed.

He teaches us Maths and Science. He is master of his subjects. His method of teaching is very unique and interesting. He teaches us through games and activities. He gives us good examples. He teaches us so well that we don't have to work hard at the time of the exam. His voice is loud and clear. Even students on the last bench can hear him clearly. Mr. Shah listens to our problems and solves them. He does not get angry with us. He never shouts at us. He helps poor and weak students in study. He does not punish us. He always helps us in school celebrations, projects and activities. I used to hate Maths. It was a difficult subject for me. But thanks to Mr. Shah, now I love Maths. I can solve difficult sums easily.

Really, Mr. Shah is an ideal and inspiring teacher. We all like and respect him very much. Whenever I think of Mr. Shah, my heart speaks :

“Good teachers teach. But a great teacher like Mr. Shah inspires.”

OR There are many big and powerful countries in the world. But India is the greatest of all. India is the biggest democracy in the world. Delhi is the capital of India. Tricolour is the national flag of India. Tiger is our national animal and peacock is our national bird. Our national anthem is ‘Jana gana mana’ by Rabindranath Tagore. Hindi is the national language of India. But we can also hear many other languages such as: Gujarati, Marathi, Tamil, Telegu, Kannad, Bangali, Punjabi, etc. India is a secular nation. People of different religions live here peacefully together. Thus, India is a true example of Unity in diversity. India is famous for its colourful festivals. Diwali, Holi, Navratri, Rakshabandhan, Rathayatra, Janmashtami and Idd are popular festivals of India. The famous food items of India are : paneer vegetables, curries, pulao, rajma - chawal, bhaji - paw, vada - paw, masala dosa, idli - sambhar, chole - bhature, samosa, kachori, biriyani, daal-makkhani, daalbat, rasgulla, gulabjamun, etc. India is a glorious land where great legends have born. India has given many great men and women to the world such as : Mahatma Gandhi, Dr. Vikram Sarabhai, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Rabindranath Tagore, Jamshedji Tata, Azim Premji, Dhirubhai Ambani, Dr. Homi Bhabha, Salim Ali, Swami Dayanand Saraswati, Swami Vivekanand, Shrimad Rajchandra, Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, Arunima Sinha, Mother Teresa, Indira Gandhi, Kalpana Chawla, Mary Kom, etc. People of India are kind, loving and friendly. I am very proud to be a part of such wonderful country. I love India.

OR My Memorable Day at Statue of Unity

Visiting the Statue of Unity was one of the most memorable experiences of my life. I visited the Statue of Unity last December during my winter vacation. It was a perfect time to explore this magnificent place. I went with my family, including my parents and my younger sister. It was a family trip that we had been planning for a long time.

We reached the Statue of Unity early in the morning, around 9 AM. This gave us plenty of time to explore and enjoy the various attractions. We stayed at a nearby hotel in Kevadia, which was comfortable and conveniently located. The hotel provided a beautiful view of the surrounding nature.

The climate was pleasant and cool, making it ideal for sightseeing. The clear skies and gentle breeze added to the overall experience. The natural beauty around the Statue of Unity is breathtaking. The lush greenery, the flowing Narmada River, and the majestic mountains in the background create a attractive background. During our visit, we saw several amazing places:

Statue of Unity: The main attraction, standing tall and proud, is the world’s tallest statue. It is a tribute to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, a great leader of India.

Valley of Flowers: A beautifully landscaped garden with a variety of colourful flowers and plants.

Sardar Sarovar Dam: An impressive dam that provides a stunning view of the river and surrounding areas.

Jungle Safari: We enjoyed a thrilling safari where we saw various animals and birds in their natural habitat.

Museum and Exhibition Hall: These provided insightful information about Sardar Patel’s life and India’s history.

We had a fantastic time exploring all these places. We took lots of photos, enjoyed the scenic views, and learned a lot about India’s history and culture. The highlight of the day was the light and sound show in the evening, which beautifully narrated the story of Sardar Patel and the making of the statue. In conclusion, my visit to the Statue of Unity was an unforgettable experience. The combination of natural beauty, historical significance, and family time made it a day to remember. I look forward to visiting again and reliving those wonderful moments.

School Report Team - 10 (A)

Yesterday on 2nd October, our school organized a Swachata Abhiyan. All the students and teachers took part with joy and great enthusiasm. Mr. P. B. Gadhvi, D.E.O. of Ahmedabad was invited as the chief guest. First, we gathered in school's playground. Our teachers gave us instructions. Then we wore nose masks and gloves. We took brooms, mops and buckets and cleaned the playground and classrooms. After the cleaning, we were taken to the assembly hall. There, we took an oath to maintain cleanliness around us. Then our chief guest, Mr. P. B. Gadhvi gave his speech on the importance of cleanliness in our lives. Then our principal, Mr. Vijay Raval gave his speech. He thanked all the teachers and students to make the event a great success. He also thanked Mr. P. B. Gadhvi for coming to our school. At the end of the event, posters and booklets of Swachata Abhiyan were distributed among the students. The students happily returned to their homes.
