Mrs. Suhani Mehta 's daughter liked to study but she did not share anything about her school or study. So, Mrs. Mehta was worried. She shared her problem with Dr. Mackey. He said that sharing is the glue that binds a family together. If sharing is missing, both the children and parents are responsible for it.

Sometimes teenagers do not share some personal details with parents. Parents should understand this. But children should also understand that sharing is important. Not sharing anything can be dangerous or harmful.

- OR 'Palakkad's Public Library' is an inspirational story that shows how a small library fought against the odds and empowered the women of Kerala.

Palakkad's District Library was established in September, 2013. It is a fine modern library and centre for information, knowledge, wisdom, cultural activities, research and reference. But it is famous for its women members. A third of its thousand members are women. These women members launched a women's unit in February, 2014 for women empowerment. The library provides film screening and different workshops such as : home economics, gardening, child care and arts. It also helps women in family conflicts, legal disputes and professional problems.

Indeed, the Palakkad's District Library is a ray of hope for women of Kerala !

56. “God cannot take care of everyone therefore he created mother.”

Indeed it is true. Mother is God's greatest creation. My mother's name is _____. She is a housewife / homemaker. She is _____ years old. She is very kind and caring. She takes care of all the members of my family. She wakes up very early in the morning. First, she prepares tea, breakfast and lunch box for me and my father. Then she washes clothes and cleans the house. She also prepares lunch and dinner for us. She helps me and my sister / brother in study. Thus, she works hard the whole day but never gets tired. She never gets angry with us. She never shouts at us. She is the first to wake up but last to sleep. We have a holiday on Sunday but mom is always on duty. She does not get a holiday or a vacation. In fact, she has to work more on Sunday when we all are at home. I help my mom whenever it is possible. She is the most important person in our family. I can not imagine my life without her.

I love and respect my mother for her hard work and dedication.

OR Noise Pollution

Noise pollution is a type of pollution that affects our environment and health. It is caused by loud and unwanted sounds that disrupt the natural balance of life. Unlike other forms of pollution, noise pollution is invisible but can have serious effects on our health. Sound is a form of energy that travels through the air and can be heard when it reaches our ears. It is a normal part of our daily lives and can be pleasant, like music or birds singing. Noise, on the other hand, is unwanted or disturbing sound. It is often loud and unpleasant, causing discomfort and harm.

Unwanted sound, or noise, can come from various sources such as traffic, construction sites, factories, and loudspeakers. These sounds are not only annoying but can also be harmful to our health. Noise is measured in units called decibels (dB). A normal conversation is about 60 dB, while sounds above 85 dB can be harmful. For example, heavy traffic noise can reach up to 90 dB, and a rock concert can be around 120 dB. Noise pollution can cause several health problems. Prolonged exposure to loud noise can lead to : deafness, high blood pressure, heart diseases, indigestion and gastric Problems irritation and stress.

Fortunately, noise pollution is relatively easy to control compared to other types of pollution. Here are some suggestions :

1. Wearing earplugs can help reduce the impact of noise.
2. Trees and shrubs can act as natural sound barriers.
3. Homes and buildings can be soundproofed to reduce noise levels.
4. Governments can enforce laws to control noise levels in residential areas.
5. Educating people about the harmful effects of noise pollution can encourage them to take steps to reduce it.

Noise pollution is a serious issue that affects our health and quality of life. By taking steps to control it, we can create a quieter and healthier environment for everyone.

OR My Favourite festival Diwali

Diwali, also known as the Festival of Lights, is my favourite festival. It is celebrated with great joy and enthusiasm all over India. Diwali usually falls in the month of Ashwin, which is around October or November. Diwali is called the Festival of Lights because people light up their homes with diyas (oil lamps), candles, and electric lights. During Diwali, people clean and decorate their homes. They use colourful lights, flowers, and beautiful rangolis to decorate their houses.

One of the most exciting parts of Diwali is the fireworks. People of all ages enjoy bursting crackers and watching the colourful displays in the sky. Diwali is also a time to enjoy delicious sweets and snacks. Families prepare a variety of traditional sweets like laddus, barfis, and jalebis. During Diwali, people visit their friends and relatives to exchange greetings and gifts. It is a time to strengthen bonds and spread happiness. Everyone wears new clothes and enjoys the festive atmosphere.

Diwali is a festival that brings light, joy, and togetherness. It is a time to celebrate with family and friends, enjoy delicious food, and create beautiful memories. This is why Diwali is my favourite festival.

School Report Team - 10 (B)

Yesterday on 19th February, our school held a farewell function for the students of std. 10. The function was organized at Prime Dine Hotel in the evening. All the students and teachers took part with joy and great enthusiasm. Mr. P. B. Gadhvi, D. E. O. of Ahmedabad was invited as the chief guest. The function started with a prayer. Then Prajapati Riya, a student of std. 10 (B) gave an emotional speech. She recollected some good old memories of our school life. Some students and teachers got very emotional and could not hold back their tears. Then Mr. P. B. Gadhvi gave his speech on the importance of hard work and preparation. He also wished us good luck for our board exams. Then we played housie. The winners of housie were given prizes by Mr. P. B. Gadhvi. Then it was time for dinner. We all enjoyed the food with our friends and teachers. We talked a lot and had a great time. After dinner our teachers wished us good luck for the exam. We left the place and went to our homes with heavy heart.

What a memorable function it was !
