Introduction

- Letter-writing is an art. So, it must aim at a certain standard of form and elegance. While writing a letter we must always think of the person to whom we are writing. The subject-matter, no doubt, is important, but we must write it in a way which will make the letter interesting to the person receiving it. A letter written rustically may contain useful information, but it may be lacking in elegance, and violate the norms which requires a good taste. So, one must observe certain standards of form and good taste in the order and structure of one's letters. This means that there should be no carelessness about it, and it should not suggest discourtesy and indifference to the person addressed.
- We should always remember that letter plays an important role in maintaining our communication and relations with friends and relatives, as well as establishing commercial and other kinds of relations with foreigners.

Classification of Letters

Letters may be divided into the following classes :

- Business or Official Letters : For making enquiries, registering complaints, asking for and giving information, placing orders and sending replies.
- Letter to the Editor : Giving suggestions or opinion on issues of public interest
- Application for a Job : While forwarding your resume for a job opportunity.

Subject: Defective Inverter

Sir,

I bought Luminous Inverter from your showroom on October 20, 2018 sale no. 6389. I regret to inform you that it is a defective piece. It automatically turns off after every half an hour. Many times its display starts blinking and the battery backup is only of forty minutes maximum. The water also keeps leaking from the battery.

I have been your regular customer since 2010. My customer id is 2078IN9. You can look up my purchase record in your system. I have been facing a lot of inconvenience during the outage. I appeal to you to replace the defective inverter as it is in the warranty period.

Looking forward to prompt response. From your end.

Sub : Chaotic Conditions in Casualty Department.

Sir,

Yesterday I was shocked to see the real state of one of the most prestigious hospitals 'Sunrise Hospital' in the national capital, Delhi. Delhi is known as the heart of our country. But I witnessed heartless behaviour of our second 'Gods', i.e. the doctors.

It happened so that I went to the hospital, taking with me a victim of a 'hit and run' accident case. I pleaded with the doctors in the casualty department to attend to him on an urgent basis as he was bleeding profusely. But the doctors did not pay any heed to my hand folded requests. Instead of offering a helping hand to him, they preferred that the case should be first attended by the police. Moreover, I was asked to submit a handsome amount at the counter in order to get him admitted to the hospital. I was absolutely in a fix because the victim was not my acquaintance. I tried to help him just out of a sense of humanity. Fortunately, one of my friends, who was an advocate, came there. He asked the doctors to start the treatment immediately and warned that as per the law, the case would go against them if they showed any negligence or waited for police enquiry. Only then, the injured was attended to, but till then a lot of precious time had been lost.

I hope, that you'll look into this matter yourself so that such dreadful negligence that may defame this noble profession, may not take place in future.

Thanking you

Sir,

Mysore is proud to have four reputed public schools in close proximity to each other. But in the morning hours as well as in the afternoon, there is a heavy traffic jam along the road. The traffic condition here becomes very chaotic. Hundreds of students face a lot of inconvenience. Accidents are very frequent and the safety of the children is at risk.

Sir, it is my humble request that a traffic point should be put here. There should be an arrangement for traffic police as well. A board indicating 'Schools Ahead' should also be put up there.

I am sure that if these steps along with some other positive changes are taken to regulate the traffic, it will surely prove to be a relief.

In anticipation of positive and quick action.

Sub : Control Over Road Rage.

Dear Sir,

Every year, thousands of people are injured or killed in car wrecks caused by road rage. Despite this fact many people still behave impatiently and become angry on the road. Driving is a curious display of public and private acts. The personal feeling of power over a couple thousand pound car is intoxicating. Road rage/aggressive driving starts from things such as illegal or improper lane changes, failing to yield to the right way, and excessive speeding just to name a few. Everyday we deal with this type of driving. Weak enforcement of law, highway traffic, the growing congestion in cities and personal issues play a major role in the disposition of an aggressive driver. The angry driver may demonstrate his or her displeasure by speeding around the other vehicle, cutting the other car off, and/or with a number of verbal and non-verbal messages.

We must take the issue seriously and try to check it. Traffic on highways should be better managed. Besides, traffic rules should be enforced strictly so that people are not able to change lanes or overspeed. Traffic police should be available in proximity in case a misunderstanding happens between drivers. We must control this outrageous behavior before someone else gets hurt.

Thanking you

Sir,

Through this letter of mine, I wish to draw your attention towards the deteriorating condition of the main park in our city. The city park which was once famous for its beauty and facilities has now become a favourite spot for anti-social elements and also a permanent resting place for stray animals. There is no one to ward them off. The general public is now scared of using these parks.

The municipality should see to it that these stray animals do not enter the park. They should adopt a strict policy. Also the frequency of animal catching vans should be increased. The Horticulture Department should be asked to take prompt action to restore the park to its original condition so that the park lovers no longer hesitate to use the park. Security should also be increased so that no anti-social elements are able to enter the park.

I sincerely hope that a strict action will be taken to satisfy my request.

Subject : Music as a Compulsory Subject

Dear Sir,

I would humbly like to request you to make music a compulsory subject at least upto class X. Though music has its own importance and value like games and sports, it has been neglected and it is gradually declining. I believe schools can revive it.

Like sports, music also will not only help the child to refresh himself but also help him to get a break from his hectic study schedule. It will also help the children in learning skills. The students excelling in it can also form a strong base and pursue it as their career.

Hope that you will surely consider the matter seriously and take some steps in this direction.

In anticipation of some positive action,

Thanking you

Yours faithfully

Sir,

Through the columns of your reported newspaper, I wish to express my concern over the problem of demonstrations and strikes. The people who suffer the most with demonstrations and strikes are the common people. I myself became the victim of one such public demonstration; I could not reach my entrance exam for JEE on time and missed it. These strikes, protests, and demonstrations cause many inconveniences to people. Some of the many demerits of Strikes, protests, and Blockades are given below:

- a) The general flow of life is stopped. Vehicles, transportation system is halted.
- b) People face inconvenience.
- c) Supply of essential goods and services is affected.
- d) Sick people or critically ill people can't be moved from one place to another.
- e) Production of essential goods is affected.
- f) Public property is damaged.
- g) Schools, colleges, and universities are shut down.
- h) The poor people who earn their wages on daily basis don't get work and wages

Through the medium of your esteemed daily I appeal to people and the Government to join hands against each protests and strikes. If they have anything to protest they may do it peacefully, without resorting to violence, damaging public property, etc. The Government must also make strict rules and regulations against violent protests and strikes.

Thanking you.

Subject : Safety of Women

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to draw the attention of all well-learned citizens of the nation towards the increasing incidents of eve-teasing in our society. Whether it is a small girl or an aged lady or a college-or office-going woman, such incidents are creating a great sense of fear in the minds of all.

We do talk about women empowerment on a regular basis and ask every citizen of this nation to be a part of it. But unfortunately, even after repetitive gender sensitization campaigns, the people are not learning. Women are still considered as the second gender in the society. We do not realise that this gender makes up half of the population of the nation, and still feel unsafe in the Indian society.

India is now developing at a rapid pace and its society should develop accordingly. The fight for women's safety is not the fight of an individual or of a particular gender, but it is the fight of all humans. If the society fails to serve half of its population, its end is not far.

I request you to give some space to this letter of mine in your newspaper so that people may become aware and bring a change in the society.

Thanking you

In the world where internet has conquered everyone it is very surprising to find people still interested in books. Going to a book fair and showing enthusiasm is remarkable indeed.

I recently attended a book fair organised by National Book Trust which was a week long, in Chennai itself. When I first went there I did not expect there to be a crowd at the book fair as nowadays very few people still read books after the release of e-books. But as I entered I could still see the excitement in the people. The arrangements were all perfect. The people there were all well-read and knew exactly the books that I might want to read. There were different kinds of books talking about different things.

After seeing this I felt people should know that the essence of reading from a book in your hand has still not gone. The different smell of each book is one of its kind which is not available in an e-book. It would be very kind of you if you can publish this in your newspaper.

Thanking you

Subject: Book fair at Anna Grounds

Sir

I would like to bring to light, through your esteemed newspaper, the week long book fair that was held at Anna Grounds that was a huge success.

In the world of internet, books are slowly losing their importance, but the book fair held at Anna Grounds proved that there is no replacement for books. The week-long book fair was well organised. There was an appropriate place to park one's cars and no chaos or confusion. A variety of book stalls filled the ground, ranging from fiction to non-fiction, kids' storybooks to biographies and autobiographies. The enthusiasm of the visitors was clearly visible. Book lovers keenly discussed the plots and writings of various authors and even the little ones were seen browsing through many books. There was even a stall for refreshments and various benches were placed throughout the ground to ensure that visitors could rest. The over-all ambience convinced everyone that books are indeed indispensable.

Sub : Miserable Life Conditions in Slums.

Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to draw the attention of the readers towards the miserable life of the slum dwellers in big cities like ours.

People from rural areas come to cities in search of jobs. As a result, big cities have a large number of slums. These slums present a despaired, diseased and troubled state of people in relation to their education, accommodation, progress, advancement and future prospects. The slum-dwellers suffer from poor health, hygiene and lack of employment. Poverty looms on their withered and skinny faces. They dwell in cramped holes.

Keeping these hard conditions in view, I appeal to all the citizens especially to the teachers, intellectuals as well as the concerned authorities to come forward to improve their poor living conditions and to work for the education of their children by putting aside different types of social inequalities as all human beings have the right to live and breathe equally.

Dear Sir,

Through the column of your esteemed daily, I would like to draw the attention of the concerned authorities towards the problem of Noise Pollution.

Besides air and water pollution, the capital city is also struggling with noise pollution but no one is paying attention to it. DJs playing music during parties, marriage processions or just loud music from neighbouring flats cause a lot of disturbance to the people in the surrounding areas. What is fun to some is an unbearable disturbance for others.

Noise pollution not only leads to psychological problems like stress, anxiety, etc. but also to health problems. It is seen that the performance of school going children and the health of the senior citizens are also adversely affected by it.

We need to be aware of this fact and should do something about it. The authorities must take it up as a serious issue and do the needful to solve the problem. Besides this, in general, making legislation, educating and creating awareness among the people is required for the control of any kind of pollution.

Sub : Importance of Medical Tourism.

Dear Sir,

Medical tourism is a novel and trendy concept. By it we mean medical and surgical services availed by the tourists while vacationing or travelling in another country. India is the hottest and the most sought after emerging destination catering to the vastly flourishing medical tourism industry.

It is good to know that people from all walks of life cut across the entire span of the globe to travel to India for their treatment, in order to experience the most competent and world class medical services. India has some of the most highly qualified and experienced physicians in the world. The medical facilities present in the high end hospitals of India are at par with the facilities present in the hospitals in Western countries. Hospitals are equipped with the latest technology and the physicians have super-specialization in their respective specialities. In addition to the allopathic and modern medicine, India boasts of several other traditional medicine options like ayurveda, naturopathy, homeopathy, unani and yoga-cure.

The cost saving on medical expenses is huge as compared to the Western countries and is one of the biggest motivating factors for people who travel all the way to seek treatment in India. For example, the cost of an effective knee surgery is almost 40-60% lesser in India than that in the US, even if we include the stay in the hospital, tests, surgeon's fee and transportation costs to and fro from India.

We hope that this trend continues and Medical Tourism keeps flourishing in India in the times to come.

Dear Sir,

It has become a common practice for all the cricketers these days to take their family and friends along with them whenever they go abroad for their official trips. I wonder if this is good.

I believe that this will distract them from their goal as they will be more occupied with family and friends rather than focusing on their practice sessions and game. I am afraid the trips will be more like fun-filled holidays rather than official tours and this will definitely affect their performance. And let us not forget that on their performance depends the country's pride and dignity.

On the other hand, if the officials feel that it actually helps them in focusing on their game, then may we ask why the same privilege is not given to our athletes. The rules should be the same for everyone and there should be no discrimination between sportsmen.

I hope that the sports bodies will take the issue under consideration and give it a serious thought.

Dear Sir,

It is disheartening to see that many of the children in our country still do not go to school and rather spend their childhood working.

A few days ago, I visited Singhpur village, my grandfather's native place. I was very disappointed to see that children in the age group of 5-14 were working in the fields or simply loitering on the streets. The parents, instead of sending them to the school, prefer to make them work. They do not realise how important education is for the future of their children and the country.

It is very essential that the people in rural areas are made aware of the importance of education and towards the efforts made by the government. The programmes of 'Compulsory Education for All' or 'mid-day meals' should be made known to them. Apart from that, there should also be efforts to educate the adults of that area. Only when they are educated and aware, they will realise the value of education and send their children to school.

I hope all the children in our country will go to school and the dream of hundred percent literacy in India will become reality.

Sub : Exploitation of Teachers.

Dear Sir,

The news item in your esteemed newspaper on the exploitation of teachers in private schools was not only shocking but also sad. Nothing can be worse to know that the teachers, who dedicatedly teach the future generations of the country, themselves are victims of such kind of exploitation. It is not surprising that on being paid such low salaries, in fact, being paid a fraction of their authorised salaries, that also without any perks and allowances, they become demotivated and lose interest in their work and this affects their performance in their classrooms. In such conditions, it is difficult to get and retain quality teachers. It also gives rise to the tuition culture which is affecting our education system badly.

The government must keep a strict check on these schools and make sure that the teachers are paid their authorised salaries as per the govt. fixed pay scales. The govt. agencies should monitor teachers’ salary and perks, given by school. School authorities should be humane in their duties towards their teachers. If they give good salary to teachers, only then will they draw competent teachers. They should pay salaries through banks to ensure that everything is in black and white. The teachers themselves should unite and fight against such injustice and complain about such employers. It is when these ‘guiding lights’ are given their due share, that the nation will be enlightened. I hope that the scenario will change soon and our teachers will get what they deserve.

Dear Sir,

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper. I wish to draw the attention of one and all towards lesser girls going to schools.

Today's girl child will be the mother of tomorrow. As a mother she can give her child a sound nursing and capable upbringing. At the micro level, educated woman help in making the whole family, including the older family members, understand the values and importance of education, and at the macro level, educated women add to the social and economic development of the nation.

Women's social conditions started deteriorating with the passage of time. Instead of being provided with education, they were being subjected to sufferings under the Purdah System and due to practices like child marriage. In some states female infanticide is prevalent even today. A new culture of the elimination of female foetus has gradually become rampant. Discrimination between the education of girls and boys is common in rural areas. Things are changing, though slowly, but steadily gradually but slowly.

The various awareness programmes launched by the government for encouraging girls' education, have played a positive role in this direction but the result is not up to the desired level. Education for a girl child means making the next generation well-educated, full of virtues, free from the useless superstitions, confident and capable to do something good for the family, for the society and for the country as a whole.

Sub : Increasing Cases of Drunken Driving

Dear Sir,

Through this letter of mine, I would like to draw everyone's attention towards increasing cases of drunken driving. Each year numerous lives are lost due to careless and irrational driving. The disregard for safe driving has been a major predicament for the country over the years. For many years the police have relied heavily on speed cameras, breath analyzer tests and heavy fines as deterrents against unlawful drivers, but still over the years, the fatality rate has increased.

Teenagers are the greatest victims of this. Most of the times, they see it as fun and get carried away without realizing the consequences. They are not in denial mode when it comes to being too intoxicated to drive. Intoxication implies a loss of motor control, judgement ability and reduced inhibition that can easily occur in adolescents with the intake of even a relatively small amount of alcohol. Unfortunately, many make the decision to get behind the wheel of a car while intoxicated and the result is obvious. Driving under its influence has become the leading cause of death in young adults, aged fifteen to twenty-four years.

Educating people about the ramifications of drinking and driving may lower the future number of violators and victims. Besides that, strict checking by the govt. will also discourage people from drinking and driving. Friends and relatives must be aware and should be ready to help in this matter. They can offer to drive and discourage the drunken person from driving.

We need to check this problem before it destroys individuals, families and societies. Let's nip it in the bud before it is too late.

Kindly publish this letter of mine in your newspaper so that everyone may become aware of it.

Thanking you.

Dear Sir,

If you go through the manifestos of almost all the major political parties, all of them harp on the same issues like waterlogging and cleanliness. Unfortunately, none, including the independents, put in a word about creating more playgrounds. There are no sportsgrounds in government schools in the metros where talented children can groom themselves into sportspersons. If they have, the timings are divided between the boys' shifts and the girls' shifts and deserving children do not get sufficient time to practice.

Every school should have a playground in proportion to their strength, and enough time should be allotted so as to ensure that students get enough exposure to sports. Lack of exposure will lead to lack of aptitude to play. Authorities should make sure that the right infrastructure is available to students.

Besides providing sports personalities with the exposure, having the right facilities will improve the student's health benefits as well.

No place can develop by depending only upon the central or state government. I hope the local govt. authorities will become aware after reading this letter in your newspaper and look into the matter as it is the local government which is responsible for the all-round development of a city.

Subject : Insufficient Electricity Supply.

Dear Sir,

Through the column of your newspaper, I would like to draw the attention of the State Electricity Board to the fact that city remains in the dark for many hours at a stretch and that too very frequently. This has never happened before. The lives of people have become miserable because in today's date, people are dependent on electricity for everything. Since there is no electricity, there is a shortage of water also. The household budget also has gone haywire because food items get spoilt because of lack of electricity.

The electricity board should repair lines and take strict measures against electricity theft so that the public in general need not suffer.

It is a matter of great concern and needs urgent attention.

Thanking you

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir,

Through the column of your esteemed newspaper I would like to draw the attention of the authorities to the fact that water is a basic necessity of life and the people of Perambalur are not being provided with even that. The water supplied is not enough, as the taps run dry for two days at a stretch. And when water is supplied, it is stinking and yellow in colour. This is causing rampant diseases and health issues also.

It's high time the authorities looked into it and improved the water supply of the city.

Thanking you

Sub : Wastage in the form of weddings

Dear Sir,

Through this letter of mine I wish to draw the attention of one and all towards lavish weddings

Several crores are spent on weddings and the reason often cited is that it is a once in a lifetime moment. Those who can afford such extravagant displays of wealth are making it difficult for those who cannot. On one hand, we blame the government for increasing prices everywhere. We complain about the rising petroleum prices, we hold protests against the government for the reason that our lives are being affected because of the rise in the prices but on the other hand we turn into spendthrifts when it comes to weddings.

The problem is that we have a very casual approach to the problem. We have accepted this lousy practice as something that needs to be followed and we lose our hair worrying from where to arrange money to afford this type of marriage but we don't even think that this is something that should be redundant.

There is absolutely no way we can justify such extravagant spending on weddings. It's high time we should touch base moved to simple wedding system. Some of the regions in the country have initiated this practice.

I request you to publish this letter of mine in your reprinted newspaper so that people may think of arranging simple wedding and not wait money.

Thanking you

Yours sincerely

Sub : Wedding Processions a Public Nuisance.

Dear Sir,

Indian weddings are known for their grandeur and fanfare and marriage processions form an important part of them. Yes, celebrations such as wedding processions are required and I understand that the people concerned really enjoy that. However, what I don't understand is why are they becoming a public nuisance to people who are nowhere related to the particular celebration?

Once in a while, one can be late to office/miss an important meeting, etc., but what about emergency vehicles that have to pass through the route on which such a procession is being conducted?

These traffic jams are common during auspicious days because of marriage processions. Apart from that, noise and brawls on roads have also become a common sight during marriage days.

In our celebrations we must not forget that our enjoyment should not become a cause of inconvenience to someone else. The processions should be kept away from main roads and allowed only on the by-lanes and for short distances. There should also be a time constraint. The Indian-weddings should not be at the cost of others' lives and emergencies.

Kindly give space to this letter of mine in your newspaper to spread awareness amongst people.

Thanking you

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir,

May I draw your kind attention towards the crossing near Udyog Vihar at Noida Road, which is always busy. Earlier the road was not busy but last month due to the inauguration of the New Grain Market and the opening of two educational institutions, the road has become too busy to cross it conveniently. Minor or serious accidents happen twice or thrice a week. This is due to rash driving by bus drivers. The vehicles run very fast without caring about the cyclists and pedestrians. The growing number of vehicles transporting the grains in season add on to the problem. It would be a good idea to create awareness regarding traffic rules in that area. Strict measures should be taken against those who violate these rules.

I would like to request you to highlight this problem in the column of your newspaper so that the related authorities can take necessary measures to curb this problem at the earliest.

Thanking you

Through the column of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to highlight the problem of traffic that is caused due to stray animals. These animals cause traffic jams as well as accidents.

This is the problem being faced in almost all the major and important roads of markets. These animals occupy all the footpaths, meant for pedestrians to walk on. Usually animals squat there and in the middle of the road.

Though I have already written to the concerned authorities yet no action has been taken so far. I would request you to publish this article in your newspaper to draw the attention of the Municipal, Commissioner, Chennai and to urge the concerned authorities take action to solve it.

Through the columns of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to draw the kind attention of the municipal corporation towards the three open manholes, right in the center of the main road leading to our locality in Civil Lines area.

These manholes are situated at the prime location and therefore, over the last one week a lot of accidents have happened because of the same. Also, due to the arrival of monsoons, the situation has become more dangerous and demands immediate attention. These manholes also have standing water which is now causing diseases in addition to the accidents.

We have filed many complaints but all of them seem to have fallen on deaf ears. I hope you will publish my article in your esteemed newspaper and help induce the authorities to take the necessary action.

Dear Sir,

Through the column of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to draw the attention of the General Manager (maintenance) towards the pathetic state of the State Transport.

My last journey from Chennai to Thiruvallavur was a nightmare. Not only were the air conditioners not working properly but the maintenance of that A. C. bus was also unimaginably bad. Even after paying for an air-conditioned and comfortable journey, passengers had to deal with unbearable heat throughout the way. Many passengers fainted and many children had stomach problems due to the heat-stroke. Even after getting paid so highly, the service providers provided such bad service.

I hope you will publish my article in your local daily and help stir up the attention of the concerned authorities towards the appalling state of the transport system so that passengers do not face similar difficulties in the future.

Dear Sir,

Through the column of your esteemed newspaper, I would like to draw the attention of the concerned authorities towards the declining importance of sports and games in the country.

Even after millions of rupees being allocated for the improvement of sports and games in the country, our ranking in the international arena is declining. Millions of sportspersons who have the ability to bring laurels to the country do not have the right infrastructure, coaches and the facilities to support them.

We need to encourage talent at the local level by improving the facilities at the local level, i.e., in schools and clubs so that young people can get enough training and enter the national level with expertise.

This is a matter of grave concern and I would request you to publish my opinion in your esteemed newspaper and help draw the attention of the sports ministry as well as the general public towards this issue.

Thanking you
