This question is for Visually impaired candidates only in lieu of question no. 11.

11 A. What is the meaning of Defection in terms of Indian politics?
Describe any two demerits of defection. 2+2

Ans.11 A. The change of political loyalty by an elected public representative is known as defection. In other words, when an elected public representative leaves his political party and join other party due to personal and political differences or makes a new political party or vote against parent party without formally leaving the party, then it is known as defection.

Demerits of defection -

- (a) Opportunistic and unethical politics of anti-defection has helped removing anti-social elements into active politics. Buying of party defected elected representatives has increased political corruption.
- (b) Political opportunists have created division in political parties. Central and State governments became victims of political uncertainty. Political parties have become irresponsible and thereby people have started losing faith on political parties and their leaders.

Section-C

12. 'Peace and prosperity of countries lay in establishing and strengthening of regional economic organizations'. Critically evaluate the statement. 1+1+1+1+1+1

Ans.12.

- (b) Backward countries also get a chance for their development and thus, employment also increases.

- (c) Standard of living of every country is improved.
- (d) They get facilities of quality education, health and transport.
- (e) When the public gets satisfied, then its trust in Nation's policy increases and thus along with its capability, also corporates in its policies, which brings peace and prosperity in a country.
- (f) There are no chances of public outrage.

OR

Give an account of the changing role of state in the light of Globalization. 1+1+1+1+1+1

Ans.

- (a) Globalization results in an erosion of state capacity, i.e. the ability of government to do what they do.
- (b) All over the world, the old welfare state is now giving way to a more minimalist state that performs certain core functions, such as, the maintenance of law and order and the security of its citizens.
- (c) The entry and the increased role of multinational companies all over the world leads to a reduction in the capacity of government to take decisions on their own.
- (d) Globalization has also reduced the power of states to decide national and foreign policy voluntarily. They have been forced to follow the policies and decisions of international organizations.
- (e) There has been a change in the role of the state in making and implementing strict rules of import-export. Because globalization is based on the concept of rapid flow of people, things and ideas. Therefore, the barriers to permits, licenses etc. have been reduced, due to which the role of the state has also been reduced.

- (f) In some respects state capacity has received a boost as a consequence of globalization, with enhanced technologies available at the disposal of the state to collect information about its citizen. With the information, the state is better able to rule, not less able.

13. Critically evaluate the six main issues in Indian politics during the 21st century. 1+1+1+1+1+1

Ans.13.

- (a) Triple Talaq: Rights of women and dignity were upheld in the judgement and an end was put to the exploitation and insecurity of women.
- (b) Article 370: Special status of Jammu and Kashmir revoked, reaffirming that it is an integral part of India.
- (c) Farm Laws Repeal: There were a yearlong protest of farmers largely across Punjab and Western Uttar Pradesh and surmounting pressure on the government by Dharna in Delhi. This led to the intervention of Judiciary and formation of an expert committee. Finally, led to repeal .
- (d) CAA-NRC Law: To fast track citizenship for minorities in neighboring states, however accumulated fears within Indian communities which led to country wide protests. Judiciary had to intervene. Finally, implementation was put on hold by the government.
- (e) Ram Janmabhoomi: This was a centuries long dispute and was reignited in the 1990s. It shaped the discourse of Indian Politics (rise of BJP). The case went to Supreme Court after Allahabad Court's judgement in 2010. An expert committee was formed by the Supreme Court. Finally judgement came in 2019 and the matter was put to rest.

- (f) Majoritarian government (single party) in 2014 and 2019, yet followed the pre poll alliance (NDA).

OR

Discuss the impact of the relationship between the Judiciary and the Executive during emergency period in India. 1+1+1+1+1+1

Ans.

The impact of the conflict between the Judiciary and the Executive was as follows:

- (a) The Indira Gandhi government brought in many changes in Constitution that declared that election of Prime Minister, President and Vice President could not be challenged in court.
- (b) The government made extensive use of Preventive Detention.
- (c) To give preference to Directive Principles of State Policy over Fundamental Rights. Due to this provision, any person could be deprived of even his fundamental rights. Along with this, this amendment completely dwarfed the judiciary. At the same time, immense powers were given to the legislature.
- (d) The government also superseded the practices of the Supreme Court in appointing its Chief Justice.
- (e) The term of the Parliament was also increased from five years to six years.
- (f) Under the provisions of emergency, the various fundamental rights of citizens stood suspended, including the right of citizens to move the court for restoring their fundamental rights.
- (g) Judiciary delivered various controversial judgements; did not perform its role properly. No constitutional rule of law prevailed; this was called as the dark period of democracy; no media freedom and opposition was in jail. Judiciary and Executive acted as one entity, with judiciary not keeping a check on the actions of the executive. By way of 42nd Amendment, detention was removed from judicial review. (Any six points)
