Section A - Reading Skills

1. Read the following passage carefully:

[10]

1. Happiness is like the sun; it is often hidden by the clouds of thoughts, worries and desires. We have to scatter and dissolve these clouds to experience happiness. You don't have to create it, all you have to do is calm your mind, because when there is a quiet mind and inner peace, there is happiness. It is not something far away and unattainable and does not depend on circumstances, objects or events. Happiness is an inseparable part of our consciousness, of our essence, but hidden and covered from sight by our thoughts, desires, and worries.
2. The mind is always in a constant race from one thought to another, from one worry to another. It constantly moves from one object or task to another. This restlessness hides the happiness that is within you. It is like a choppy sea that hides the bottom. When the sea gets calm, you can see the bottom. In the same way, when the mind gets quiet, you sense the happiness that is within you.
3. You cannot see a treasure at the bottom of a stormy and muddy lake although it is there. However, when the wind stops, the water becomes still and the mud sinks, you can see the treasure. The treasure is there, whether you see it or not. So is happiness. It is always here, only hidden by thoughts, desires and worries.
4. You can experience more happiness in your life. Only your thoughts stand in your way of experiencing it. Next time you feel happy, stop for a moment and watch the state of your mind. You will be surprised to discover that it is calm, and there are almost no thoughts in your mind. Since the mind is not accustomed to stay in this peaceful state for long, it soon becomes active again, and the sense of happiness disappears.

5. Many people connect happiness to achievement of certain goals. This makes happiness a reward and not an emotion that must be felt. We forget that it is something that comes by looking inward rather than waiting for an external trigger. Once you start looking inwards, you will have to treat yourself as you would treat a valued friend. This will lead to happiness. Take time to appreciate yourself, your work and your accomplishments. Surround yourself with happy people and recall positive memories. It is important to recognise that you have the power to feel happy within you and with practice, it will be felt frequently.

Subject: Promoting Tourism and Heritage in Our Beautiful City

Sir,

I am writing to express my pride in our city's rich cultural heritage, historical monuments, vibrant shopping centers, and serene parks. Delhi boasts a rich tapestry of historical monuments, cultural landmarks, vibrant shopping centers, and breathtaking parks that make it truly exceptional and makes us feel truly blessed.

In light of the government's commendable initiative of offering free entry to historical monuments on the occasion of the 75th Independence Day, I propose further measures to increase footfall. Encouraging school excursions with reduced entry fees, organizing cultural festivals at these sites, and promoting eco-friendly transportation options can attract more visitors. Additionally, enhancing the infrastructure, cleanliness, and safety measures will make these places more inviting to both locals and tourists.

Let's work together to preserve our city's heritage and boost tourism, ensuring that future generations can also take pride in its magnificence.

Thanking you.

5. The data reveals that a significant portion of out-of-school children in India are engaged in various odd jobs, with bottles collection being the most prevalent at 46%. This high percentage suggests that bottles collection is accessible and requires minimal skills, making it a viable option for many children. Shoes polishing (20%) and car washing (12%) are also common, likely due to their visibility and the potential to earn money from passersby. Cleaning, dishwashing, and selling and wood collection each account for 7%, indicating these jobs are somewhat accessible but less common. Begging, at 1%, is the least prevalent, possibly due to its low income potential and social stigma.

The primary drivers of child labour include poverty, lack of access to education, and family indebtedness. These factors force children into work at a young age, depriving them of education and perpetuating cycles of poverty. Addressing these root causes is essential to combat child labor and ensure children can pursue education and better opportunities.

The argument that the touch and feel of a paper book enhance the reading experience is common among book enthusiasts. While digital and audio books provide convenience and accessibility, they lack the tactile sensation of holding and turning the pages of a physical book. For many readers, the physicality of a book contributes to their engagement and enjoyment of the reading experience. Additionally, some studies suggest that reading a physical book may lead to better comprehension and retention of the material compared to reading digitally. However, it's important to note that everyone's reading preferences and experiences are different, and what works for one person may not work for another. Therefore, having a variety of reading options, both in physical and digital formats, is a better option. As it can accommodate diverse learning styles and preferences.

The roots of these trees are engaged in the cracks of the veranda floor. At night, these roots try to free themselves from the cracks. The leaves try to move towards the glass. Even now, Kodavus are the only people in India permitted to carry firearms without a licence.

(i) The young seagull's first flight can be located in the category of 'Basic Needs' in this hierarchy of needs. These needs are most essential for the very survival and maintenance of self. These include food, warmth and shelter. These needs must be met repeatedly within short time period such as hunger.

The seagull was very hungry. He hadn't eaten anything for last twenty four hours. When he saw his mother bringing food in her beak, he dived towards her. But fell from the brink of the ledge. He screamed with fear. But his fear lasted only for a moment. The next moment, he felt that his wings spread outwards instinctively. He was flying now. Thus, hunger motivated him.

(ii) Prejudging a person on the basis of race, colour or his & appearance or any other reason is wrong if so we treat the person the same as we think of them in our mind without knowing the right intensions of that person. The character subjected to this prejudice in 'First Flight' was Wanda Petronski from the chapter. 'The Hundred Dresses'. She belonged to a very poor family. She was a polish girl. She came to school in a same faded blue dress daily. It was clean but not properly ironed. Her classmates made fun of her as they found her name funny. They would ask her how many dresses she had in her closet. The girls would suppress their laugh when Wanda replied that she had a hundred dresses and sixty pairs of shoes. Although her claim was not justified. But it is not at all right to judge people on the basis of their social status. Later on, Wanda proud herself by submitting a hundred drawings of dresses. People who judge other with their social-economic background need to understand that such an attitude is not the parameter to judge a person's capabilities.

When people are undervalued by others, their self-esteem suffers and they stop trying to improve themselves. Prejudice can often lead to bullying and other forms of discrimination.

11. Answer ANY ONE of the following two questions, in about 100-120 words.

(i) For the motion

You may begin like this...

Being frugal is the quality of a prudent person who is economical in the consumption of resources available to him. These resources can be in any form be it food, clothes money or just about anything. Avoiding wastage of any kind is the greatest virtue of man. We should always remember that resources available to us by mother earth are scanty, we should make judicious use of them. Today, the whole world is hit by deadly Corona, people are out of jobs, some are working from home, some are doing nothing. In such a scenario the prudent use of money becomes all the more important. So, always use money wisely.

Against the motion,

There are no two ways about it that money makes the world go round. It's the power of money that rules the world in today's time. The more we flaunt it, the more progressive we are thought to be. Everybody loves to possess it. So, if we have more why not just show it. After all being thrifty always doesn't pay, one needs to look for one's own comfort as well. Spend what you have today, do not bother for tomorrow. For no one knows what tomorrow has in store for us.
