There was no trial before any magistrate in the US.

Nor could these prisoners approach courts in their own countries.

3. It is not wrong to say that Democratic Government is not there in Saudi Arabia". Are you agreeing with this statement? Give some suitable reasons.

---

Ans. Yes, we are agreeing with this statement. On the behalf of following facts we can say that democracy is not there in Saudi Arabia.

The country is ruled by a hereditary king and the people have no role in electing or changing their rulers.

The King selects the legislature as well as the executive. He appoints the Judges and can change any of their decisions.

Citizens cannot form Political Parties or Political Organizations. Media cannot report anything that the Monarch does not like.

There is no freedom of religion. Every citizen is required to be Muslim. Non Muslim residents can not follow their religion in private, but not in public.

4. Do you believe that the ethnic differences were the main reasons for the massacre in Kosovo? Explain.

Ans. Yes, the ethnic differences were the main reasons for the massacre in Kosovo:

Kosovo was a province of Yugoslavia before its split. In this province the population was overwhelmingly ethnic Albanian.

But in the entire country, Serbs were in majority. A narrow minded Serb nationalist Milosevic had won the elections. His Government was very hostile to the Kosovo Albanians. He wanted the Serbs to dominant the country. Many Serb leaders thought that Ethnic minorities like Albanians should leave the country or accept the dominance of the Serbs. In this way the prejudice between Majority group Serbs and minority group Albanians was a major cause of massacres and disintegration of the country. These massacres were being carried out by the army of their own country, working under the directions of their leader.

5. Do you believe that Rights also require some power to enforce them democratically? Explain.

Ans. Rights are claims of a person over other fellow being over the society and government. All claims are not Rights, it acquire meanings and recognition only in society. Rights are assurances given by Government to the citizens. These assurances include security, dignity, freedom and fair play. All these Rights are written in the constitutions of the democratic countries. Such assurances do not remain on papers. There should be someone required to enforce these assurances to the citizens. Those who violate these Rights should be punished.

To punish them a strong institution is required at national level and at international level. In other words a system is required which provide at least a minimum guarantee for the protection of their rights to everyone –powerful or weak, rich or poor, majority or minority.

6. How would you explain the three qualities of Right?

Ans. Rights are reasonable claims: Rights are claims of a person over other fellow being over the society and government. All claims are not rights. It should be such that can be made available to others in equal measures. Thus a right comes with an obligation to respect other rights.

Rights are recognized by the society: Rights has to be recognized by the society we live in. Rights acquire meanings only in society. What is recognized by society as rightful becomes the basis of rights.

Rights are sanctioned by the law: When the socially recognized claims are written into the constitution, they become law and acquire real force. Otherwise they remain merely as natural or moral rights.

7. Write main features of Right to Freedom?

Ans. Article 19 to 22 of Indian constitution deals with the right to Freedom

According to this article people have freedom of speech and expression.

Form associations and unions.

Move freely throughout the country.

Reside in any part of the country

Practice any profession, or to carry on any occupation, trade or business.

8. What are the significances of Fundamental Rights?

Ans. The Fundamental rights are the foundation of democracy.

Democracy is incomplete without fundamental rights

The Fundamental rights are essential for the development of human beings.

The Fundamental rights give protection to minorities and protect their interests.

Fundamental rights provide equality to all the citizens.

All the citizens are given equal status irrespective of their status, caste, religion or creed.

9. What are the features of Right to Constitutional Remedies?

Ans. A right which seeks the enforcement of other fundamental rights is the Right to Constitutional Remedies.

This right makes other right effective.

It possible that some time our rights may be violated by fellow citizens, private bodies or by the government.

When any of our rights are violated we can seek remedy through courts.

If it is a Fundamental Right we can directly approach the Supreme Court or the high court of a state.

That is why Dr, Ambedkar called the Right to Constitution remedies the heart and soul of our constitution.

10. Why do we need Rights in a democracy?

Ans. Rights in themselves are very necessary for the very sustenance of a democracy.

Without rights, democracy will become meaningless and ineffective.

For democratic elections to take place, it is necessary that citizens should have the right to express their opinions, form political parties and take part in political activities.

There should be some rights because things may go wrong when some citizens may wish to take away the rights from others.

Rights protect minorities from the oppression of majority. They ensure the majority cannot do whatever it wishes.

The government is expected to protect citizen's rights. But sometimes elected government may not protect or may even attack of its own citizens. So, some rights need to be placed than higher than the government so that it cannot violate them.
