

Chapter 01

How i Taught My Grand Mother To Read

1. Imagine yourself to be grandmother of the story “How I taught my Grandmother to Read”. Write a letter to your son who stays in the city.

Ans:- Vill & PO Kameshwar

Dt Gopalganj

Karnataka

Dear Gadhadar,

It was indeed a pleasure to be able to read your letter all by me for the first time today. Son, the joy of being literate has no bounds. Don't be surprised. It's true my child, your illiterate mother has learnt how to read and write. It was the other day when your daughter had gone for a marriage to the other village and I failed to read the serial. 'Kashi Yatre' in the newspaper which is usually read to me by her, I felt the pangs of being illiterate. I at once decided that I would learn how to read and write. My determination and urge to learn was duly fueled by my granddaughter. Your child agreed to be my teacher and we set our deadline for Saraswati Pooja Day. I made it son, I made it. My 'teacher' is great indeed. We worked very hard together. Undoubtedly learning has no age bar. My teacher has gifted me with a copy of the novel "Kashi Yatre" which has been published recently. I cannot describe the joy when I opened the gift and read the name of the novel all by myself.

I will remain ever grateful to my granddaughter who has made me experience the joy of being literate. Rest is fine here. Do take care of yourself.

Your loving Ma

2. Imagine yourself to be the Granddaughter of the story “How I taught my grandmother to read”. Write a page of diary after Grandmother nominates you as her teacher to learn how to read and write.

Ans: (Hints) Determination of Grandma--- her maturity and understanding--her age no bar—her enthusiasm, diligence, humility---your responsibility---planning of the course.
