Collecting and preserving things

Many people tend to collect things for different reasons. A person collects unusual things like strings and papers and creates a clutter. Their cupboards, drawers and attics are littered with things that they assume to be of use in future. Old people accumulate things due to weakness and sentimentality. Women like to collect modern clothes which they wish to buy. Women collect newspaper sketches of clothes as they wish to buy them. Some people make collecting stamps, records and books their hobby. They enjoy many benefits as they compare notes and discuss their collections about their collection to other collectors. They also make new friends and may also be asked to address gatherings.

Subject : Complaint regarding flat

Sir

Kindly refer to your registration number 568/42/38 <sup>for</sup> ~~was~~ the booking of flat A9D in Spoonma apartments. The flat was bought on 2-1-16.

I regret to inform you that our stay in this flat has not been pleasant.

It doesn't provide the standards claimed by the said PQR builders. The wall paint keeps peeling off. There is seepage of water through the walls which can be quite hazardous. Leaking sanitary fittings <sup>and</sup> improper function of lift cause great trouble to the residents.

Kindly <sup>look</sup> into the matter and make necessary repair arrangements to improve the condition of the flat. The contract clearly states provision of free service against any fault by the builder.

Yours sincerely
Karuna

6. Respected Principal, teachers and my dear friends,
I send a very warm good morning to one and all present here.

Today I, Karuna of class XII-A stand before you.

you to talk about how "discipline shapes the future of a student".

You all may know the story of the ant and the grasshopper. It tells us how the ants being meticulous and disciplined finish their work in ~~summer~~ summer and enjoy their fruits in winter. On the other hand, the grasshopper lacks orderliness, perseverance and suffers during the winter.

When we do any work with discipline we surely reap its fruits later.

Discipline is extremely vital in a student's life. While it builds their character, it also enables them to live a better organised life. We are taught to be disciplined from a very young age.

age. Keeping quiet in class, removing in file, speaking politely, standing up when teacher enters the class are some of the vital habits which we have developed over the years. A disciplined student often turns out to be an excellent and responsible

If a person,

If a person attempts to find a job, a plus point becomes his/her manners and attitude. When you do your work in a orderly and organised manner, you tend to complete it faster. ✓

For us discipline includes punctuality in coming to school and submitting of our ~~work~~ wearing a proper uniform and behaviour towards others. Discipline is very essential if you want to come out in colours and to gain respect in the society.

As Gandhiji rightly said;

"when wealth is lost, nothing is lost when health is lost, something is lost when character is lost, everything is lost"

Let's so let us maintain discipline and decorum in the school to gain a bright future for ourselves!

Thank You

Gender discrimination in society
by Karuna

The recent census shows the alarming male : female ratio. This recent sur bringings to light the increasing number of female foeticides. Though ~~the~~ sex determination of baby is banned in India, such a ~~an~~ alarming condition is prevalent in India.

In this male dominated country, ~~the~~ people ~~to~~ give special treatment to ~~the~~ boys in the family. Though such situations are reduced in modern cities, ~~the~~ villages face gender discrimination. Dowry system is still present in many parts of the country. Women oppressed and their needs are suppressed.

This problem ~~it~~ can only be solved by changing people's mindset. Girls are equal in any respect to boys. ~~the~~ Achievements by women is innumerable. Be it ~~the~~ Kalpana Chawla, Sania Mirza or Razia Begum. Women have proved their worth thro ages.

People should be made aware of such great achievements of women. Stringent laws against female foeticide should be implemented. People should be educated so that they gain a broad mind. Girls should be given special reservation in schools and colleges. The parents with girl children should be provided with incentives. Villagers awareness can be raised in villages through skits, plays and posters.

Give the girl her rights! +

Section C - literature

8. a) 'I' refers to the poet, Kamala Das. ✓
- b) The poet realises with pain, that her mother has grown old and she was nearing death. ✓
- c) The realisation was painful as the poet was very attached to her mother. The fear of separation from her was her chief fear. The thought of her mother's death leaves her in anguish and pain. ✓
- d) Ashen like that of a corpse ✓

Answer

9. b) With a near death experience at the YMCA pool, Douglas realises that how essential it is to overcome one's fear. He understood there that it was not death but the fear of death which torments a person. He ~~is~~ realises that fear itself must be feared. 2-

c) The life of joy, love and ~~the~~ richness depicted by Shakespeare do not have any meaning to the children of ~~the~~ slum. Also the map showed beautiful places which were out of the reach of these children. ~~The~~ Shakespeare is ~~a~~ milked and the map a bad example because they tempt the children to ~~a~~ rob and ~~a~~ undertake unlawful activities thereby leading them to foggy life in an endless night. 2+1

e) The governor of the prison told the secretary the Education Board that Evans was trained to take the 'O' level German exam. Also he told that Evans was a nice chap and was not violent. He was rather an entertainer in the prison. He had special ~~of~~ and took part in plays. The governor called Evans a congenital kleptomaniac.

In our life, it is great to have a role model and to be ambitious. A typical adolescent admires & may admire their favourite hero/heroine. ¶ ¶

It is alright if a teenager fantasises about them but when their fantasy turns to an obsession and madness it is not acceptable.

Sophie we is an escapist, she does not live in the reality. She tries to escape her poor economic condition and tries to live in a land of fantasy.

She imagines meeting Danny Casey but ~~she~~ tells her brother about. But when she is imagining about a date with him and literally goes to a place and waits for him it turns wrong.

One must learn to understand the 11. Jack ended the Roger Skunk story by saying that when the ~~mother~~ skunk's mother found out to know about the wizard changing her son's smell, she goes to the wizard and hits him on the head. She asks him to revert her son's smell. In the wizard obliges, the Roger Skunk starts smelling awful again.

Jo does not agree with the ending of the story. She wants the wizard to hit her on the mommy and not to change Roger's sweet smell of roses.

she says so because she is touched by the plight of the skunk. According to her, the mommy was stupid. She empathises with Roger skunk as the other creatures didn't play with him because he smelled bad.

This depicts the difference in perspective of a child and an adult. As a child To only sees the facts. But Jack wanted to convey a moral to To. He wanted to emphasise the fact that what parents' decisions for the children are always right.

attributes his strange appearance and behavior to an accident. She tries to talk to the stranger but he does not oblige.

In the story 'The Invisible man' by HG Wells, Marnel is a local tramp who acts as an accomplice to the invisible man.

Marnel is short, plump and loner. He is a local tramp who does nothing to improve his life. He is rather lazy and pessimistic.

Griffin chooses him as an accomplice because he was a loner and was easily intimidated. Griffin treats Marnel as a slave and makes him carry & bring his books from Ipswich. Marnel carried his book through the stolen money.

But the rather stupid Marnel manages to escape from the clutches of the invisible man and hide in a inn called 'Jolly Cricketers'. Later he ~~when~~ the police cannot find whose money Griffin had stolen, Marnel retains all his money. Also he opens a hotel called 'The Invisible man' and gains money by ~~to~~ telling entertaining people with by telling his experience of the invisible man. Also he keeps Griffin locked with himself and tries to trace the formula of invisibility. He often imagines his joys of becoming invisible.
