Working with the Poem

Question 1. Answer the following questions.

- (i) Who is the speaker in the poem?
- (ii) Is she/he afraid or curious, or both?
- (iii) What is she/he planning to do soon?
- (iv) “But not just yet...” suggests doubt, fear, hesitation, laziness or something else. Choose the word which seems right to you. Tell others why you chose it.

Solution:

- (i) The speaker of the poem is a small kid.
- (ii) He/She was both curious and afraid. The creaking noise of hinges at night and the feeling of someone staring at him/her make the child feel afraid. While the thought that the shed was his/her brother's den makes him/her curious.
- (iii) She/he is planning to go inside the shed soon.
- (iv) “But not just yet...” suggests the hesitation of the poet about going inside that shed.
Though he/she is confident that there are no ghosts inside but still he/she hesitates to step inside and leaves the matter to be handled in near future, gathering up more courage.

Question 2. Is there a room in your house or a house in your neighbourhood/ locality where you would rather not go alone, and never at night? If there is such a place and a story to go with it, let others hear all about it.

Solution:

This question is supposed to be done by the students themselves. However, if requested for an answer to this question in future, we will put it. Thanks.
