

Chapter 2 : Collection of Data

Question 1: Choose the correct answer

1. Schedules are filled by the,
 - Investigator
 - Enumerator
 - Informant
 - None of these

Answer: Enumerator

2. Which of the following is a merit of a good questionnaire?
 - Difficulty
 - Less number of questions
 - Not in proper order
 - Invalid questions

Answer: Less number of questions

3. Which of the following is a secondary data?
 - Government publication
 - Private publication
 - The report published by the SBI
 - All of these

Answer: Government publication

Question 2: Pick an appropriate answer and fill in the blank.

1. _____ is a person who helps the investigator collecting the data.
(Enumerator/Respondent)

Answer: Enumerator

2. In _____, the entire information is recorded by the informants themselves.
(questionnaire/schedules)

Answer: Questionnaire

3. Data originally collected in the process of investigation is known as _____ data.
(primary/secondary)

Answer: Primary

Question 3: State whether the following statements are True or False.

1. The indirect oral investigation is applied when the field of investigation is limited.
(True/False)

Answer: False

2. Primary data involve more time and more expenses. (True/False)

Answer: True

3. Approximation errors occur due to miscalculation. (True/False)

Answer: False

Question 4: What are the sources of data?

Answer: There are 2 sources of data. Namely,

- Primary Data
- Secondary Data

Question 5: Name 2 important sources of secondary data.

Answer: Secondary data has various sources to fetch information. Namely,

- Government Publications
- Semi-Government Publications

