Listen to the story:

My Brother

There was a small hill. A path was passing through the hill.

It went through the trees of pine and fir, because of that it looked lovely. People often walked on it to a holy place.

One day the sun shone high in the sky. Many people were climbing up the hill slowly and carefully, so they reached there safely.

A girl also climbed up the hill with them. Her name was Meena. Meena was twelve years old. She was not alone. She carried a boy on her back because he was not able to climb. He was four years old. His hair was curly, eyes were black and his face was shining in the bright sun.

Meena climbed up the hill slowly and steadily with her brother. Both Meena and her brother were happy.

A man in the group looked at Meena. He felt sorry for her. He said to her, “My child, why are you carrying a boy on your back? Don't you feel his load?”

Meena looked at him in wonder. She could not understand him. She said, “HE IS NOT LOAD. HE IS MY BROTHER.”

Answer the questions:

1. Where were the people going?
2. How old was Meena's brother?
3. What did the man ask Meena?
4. What did Meena reply to the man?

READING

Read the story:

A Cunning Jackal

Once, a cunning jackal jumped into a big tub of blue dye. The cunning jackal turned blue from head to tail. When he went back to the jungle, all the animals looked at him and were shocked. So he looked at himself into the river water and thought of an idea. He went back to jungle and said to animals, "I am here to protect you. I am your king." All the animals, believed him and bowed before him. The clever jackal smiled. Now he was the most powerful animal in the forest. He was proud to be the king.

Once the jackal woke up in the middle of the night. Other jackals in the forest were howling at the full moon in the sky. The blue jackal forgot that he was the king. He too began to howl.

He cried, "Hu...Aah ! Hu...Aah!"

The animals ran out to see. They shouted, "He is just a jackal." They rushed to attack him.

The blue jackal said, "I am sorry, I fooled you. Please, forgive me."

He vowed never to bother anyone. So the animals forgave him.
