

LISTENING

Sing and enjoy:

Five little ducks
Went out one day
Over the hill and far away
Mother duck said
“Quack, quack, quack, quack.”
But only four little ducks came back.

Four little ducks
Went out one day
Over the hill and far away
Mother duck said
“Quack, quack, quack, quack.”
But only three little ducks came back.

Three little ducks
Went out one day
Over the hill and far away
Mother duck said
“Quack, quack, quack, quack.”
But only two little ducks came back.

Two little ducks
Went out one day
Over the hill and far away
Mother duck said
“Quack, quack, quack, quack.”
But only one little duck came back.

One little duck
Went out one day
Over the hill and far away
Mother duck said
“Quack, quack, quack, quack.”

But none of the five little ducks
came back.

Sad mother duck
Went out one day
Over the hill and far away
The sad mother duck said
“Quack, quack, quack, quack.”
And all of the five little ducks
came back.

Listen to the story:

The Sadhu and the Scorpion

Once there was a Sadhu. He was kind. One day, he was taking bath in the river.

He saw a scorpion. It was drowning.
The sadhu took it and tried to put it out. But the scorpion stung his finger.

There was heavy pain in sadhu's hand.
He dropped the scorpion in the water.
Again he took him and tried to put it on the dry place. Once again he failed.
At last he succeeded. He put the scorpion in a dry and safe place.

One man was watching this. He asked the sadhu, "Why did you save it?
It stung you again and again." Sadhu replied, "To sting is its nature and to save is my nature. It cannot give up its nature.
I should not give up my nature."

Read the sentences and write 'True' or 'False':

1. The sadhu was kind.
2. The scorpion was taking bath in the river.
3. The sadhu wanted to save the scorpion.

4. The scorpion stung the sadhu.
5. Sadhu's nature is to save.
