

4.4 The Height of the Ridiculous

Warming Up!

Individual activity

1. The teacher writes incomplete sentences on the board. He/She asks the students to complete them in their notebooks.

- (a) Today, I am happy because .....
  - (b) Today after the class, I wish .....
  - (c) Tomorrow, I feel that .....
  - (d) I want to laugh because .....
  - (e) Today, the class seems to be cheerful about .....
- (The teacher asks every student to answer.)

2. The teacher writes an incomplete sentence and asks the students to complete it in a funny way.

- For example, (1) Mother gave me cheese but the cat ate it.
(2) I went to the market and bought an elephant.
(The teacher can add her own sentences.)

3. Give the words related to:

Syllable

A syllable is a unit of spoken language made up of a single uninterrupted sound formed by a vowel and consonants. For example, single syllable : ant, two syllables - water, three syllables : Inferno.

4. Pick out the word from the given box and write it in the correct columns below.

jump, narrow, cable, live, queen, butter, tree, kitten, van, yellow, dale, happy, night, printer, star, sober, paper, cloud, pearl, within, bike, began, slender.

Here the focus is not on the spellings but the pronunciation of the words.

Words with one syllable	Words with two syllables

5. Count the syllables and circle the appropriate number in the box.

elephant 1 2 3	mirror 1 2 3	bus 1 2 3	kangaroo 1 2 3	rough 1 2 3
insect 1 2 3	telephone 1 2 3	monkey 1 2 3	bucket 1 2 3	biscuit 1 2 3

6. Write the names of any five of your friends and mention the number of syllables in each name.

The Height of the Ridiculous

I wrote some lines once on a time
In wondrous merry mood,
And thought, as usual, men would say
They were exceeding good.

They were so queer, so very queer,
I laughed as I would die;
Albeit, in the general way,
A sober man am I.

I called my servant, and he came;
How kind it was of him
To mind a slender man like me,
He of the mighty limb.

“These to the printer,” I exclaimed,
And, in my humorous way,
I added (as a trifling jest,)
“There’ll be the devil to pay.”

He took the paper, and I watched,
And saw him peep within
At the first line he read, his face
Was all upon the grin

He read the next; the grin grew broad
And shot from ear to ear;
He read the third; a chuckling noise
I now began to hear.

The fourth; he broke into a roar;
The fifth; his waistband split;
The sixth; he burst five buttons off
And tumbled in a fit.

- Ridiculous : Too funny to believe
- wondrous : delightful

- Ableit : though
- sober : clear headed, serious

♦ In what frame of mind did the poet write some lines?

♦ What was the contrast in the narrator and his servant?

- trifling jest : a small simple joke, of no importance

♦ When did the servant grin?

♦ When was the chuckling noise heard?

♦ Which line suggests that servant was totally out of control?

- wretched : (here) in a helpless condition
- ♦ What was the impact of this experience, on the poet?

Ten days and nights, with sleepless eye,
I watched that wretched man,
and since, I never dare to write
As funny as I can.

– Oliver Wendell Holmes
(1809-1894)

ENGLISH WORKSHOP

1. Find out expressions from the poem that indicate funny moments.

For example, I laughed as I would die.

.....

2. Order of sequence : Arrange the following reactions in their proper order, as per the poem.

- His waistband split
- The grin grew broad.
- Sleepless eye.
- Was all upon the grin.
- He broke into a roar.
- He burst five buttons off.

3. Form pairs and find out the various rhyming words in the poem and two of your own. Complete the following table.

Words	Rhyming words
	From the poem	More of your own
1. ear
2. within
3. man
