We must help those who are in need.

SOLUTION

Your heart feels happy and content. You never know when you would need help in return in life.

English Workshop | Q 4 | Page 38

Think and write in 5-6 lines, why most of the people on a road/street ignore those in need of help. What about you? Write about your feelings after you have helped/ not helped when needed

SOLUTION

Most people on a road I street ignore those in need of help because they are either coldhearted or they feel that another person may come forward to help. They may even try to cheat us if we try to help them. When I helped someone in need I felt really proud of myself. It made me feel happy and content from inside. It made my day.

English Workshop | Q 5 | Page 38

Read the poem: 'Home they brought her warrior dead' by Alfred Lord Tennyson.

SOLUTION

Do it Yourself.
