

World Wars and India

EXERCISE Q.1 [PAGE 71]

Exercise Q.1 | Q 1.1 | Page 71

Choose the correct alternative and rewrite the statement.

When Austria declared war against Serbia, it was, _____ who helped Serbia.

1. Germany
2. America
3. Hungary
4. Russia

Solution: When Austria declared war against Serbia, it was Russia who helped Serbia.

Exercise Q.1 | Q 1.2 | Page 71

Choose the correct alternative and rewrite the statement.

The first atom bomb was dropped on the city of _____ during the aerial attack of America on Japan.

1. Nagasaki
2. Hiroshima
3. Pearl Harbour
4. Stalingrad

Solution: The first atom bomb was dropped on the city of Hiroshima during the aerial attack of America on Japan

Exercise Q.1 | Q 2 | Page 71

Find the incorrect pair from group 'B', and write the corrected one.

Group 'A'	Group 'B'
America	Woodrow Wilson
England	Winston Churchill
Germany	Hitler
Italy	Linlithgow

Solution: Germany –Nazism

EXERCISE Q.2 [PAGE 71]

Exercise Q.2 | Q 1 | Page 71

Write the names of historical place/person/event.

The name of the group of nations including England, France, Russia, Italy and America in the First World War

Solution: The name of the group of nations including England, France, Russia, Italy, and America in the First World War - Allied nations

Exercise Q.2 | Q 2 | Page 71

Write the names of historical place/person/event.

The name of the group of nations including Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria in the First World War

Solution: The name of the group of nations including Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey, Bulgaria in the First World War - Central power

EXERCISE Q.3 [PAGE 71]

Exercise Q.3 | Q 1 | Page 71

Write a short note.

‘League of Nations’

Solution: (i) A peace-loving American president Woodrow Wilson took a lead for the formation of the League of Nations.

(ii) All the nations involved in the war felt the need to create some solution to avoid any situation that could lead to war.

(iii) The main objectives of the League of Nation were -

(a) finding peaceful solutions for conflicts between nations.

(b) establishing peace in the world.

(iv) Austria, Germany, and other defeated nations were not allowed to become members of the league.

(v) America was not a member of the league so England and France retained their dominance in the league.

Exercise Q.3 | Q 2 | Page 71

Write a short note.

Dr. Kotnis

Solution: (i) Dr. Dwarkanath Kotnis was born on 10th October 1910 at Solapur.
(ii) When Japan had attacked China in 1937, the Chinese Government requested Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru to send a team of doctors to attend the injured Chinese soldiers.
(iii) Dr. Kotnis was the chief of the team of Indian doctors sent to China.
(iv) He attended the Chinese soldiers for years but unfortunately died in China on 9th December 1942 in the plague epidemic.
(v) Dr. Kotnis by the virtue of his selfless work formed the bridge of friendship between India and China.
(vi) The eminent Indian filmmaker, V. Shantaram made a film on his life, entitled Dr. Kotnis Ki Amar Kahani' which immortalized Dr. Kotnis' memory.

EXERCISE Q.4 [PAGE 71]

Exercise Q.4 | Q 1 | Page 71

Explain the following statement with reason.

'The Treaty of Versailles' had the seeds of the Second World War. The Text does not have any comment to this effect.

Solution: (i) The Treaty of Versailles was signed between the Allied nations and Germany at Versailles palace in 1919. It was drafted by American President Woodrow Wilson.
(ii) The Treaty of Versailles was very harsh on Germany because Germany had lost the war.
(iii) Germany was forced to accept the responsibility of the war damages suffered by the Allies.
(iv) The victorious powers had deprived Germany of huge tracts of its territory. Germany was burdened with an immense war indemnity.
(v) The peace settlement at Paris was made in a spirit of revenge. The Germans felt that too much injustice had been done to them.
(vi) The German economy ruined completely. People were starving and the government was in chaos.
(vii) It was impossible for a proud German race to forget the consequences of the war, which they had lost so humiliatingly.

(viii) This fuelled the rise of Nazism in Germany which adopted the policy of aggression. In this way, Treaty of Versailles sowed the seeds of the Second World War.

Exercise Q.4 | Q 2 | Page 71

Explain the following statement with reason.

The British Government in India decided to return home.

Solution: (i) The Second World War ended in the month of August 1945 with the surrender of Japan.

(ii) In this war England emerged victoriously but it lost heavily in terms of human life and economic conditions.

(iii) As a result of this England grew weaker. The British Government in India is now aware that Indian soldiers and people are not meek and submissive as before, ruling them was no easier.

(iv) India was not going to be the perennial source of profit for them as it used to be. There was a lot of pressure on England to give freedom to its colonies. Freedom struggles began in India which demanded Purna Swaraj' which means total independence.

Hence, the British Government in India decided to return home.

EXERCISE Q.5 [PAGE 71]

Exercise Q.5 | Q 1 | Page 71

Answer the following question in detail.

Give the causes of the Second World War.

Solution: The Second World War was fought between 1939 to 1945. Following were the causes of the Second World War:

(i) Dissatisfaction with the Treaty of Versailles:

The Treaty of Versailles was very harsh on Germany. It was made in a spirit of revenge. Germany was burdened with huge war indemnity. The German economy ruined completely. This fuelled the rise of Nazism in Germany.

(ii) Rise of Hitler:

The Nazis under the leadership of Hitler grabbed the power in Germany Hitler began to escalate Germany's military power so as to avenge the demeaning conditions imposed on Germany by the treaty of Versailles. He focussed on increasing the strength of the military as well as the navy.

(iii) Rise of Communism:

Meanwhile, Soviet Russia, a communist nation was becoming more powerful. It made nations like England, France, America uneasy. Soviet Russia and imperialism Germany viewed each other as arch enemies. England and France ignored the advances of Germany thinking that it will keep a check on the rising power of Soviet Russia

(iv) Hitler's attack on Poland:

In 1938, Hitler won the Sudeten province in Czechoslovakia, which was populated in the majority by people of German origin. In 1939, he attacked Poland which was looked upon as a neutral country by all European nations. In spite of this, Hitler attacked Poland. Therefore, England declared war against Germany.

(v) Hitler's violation of Non-aggression pact: Denmark, Norway surrendered to Germany. Germany conquered Holland, Belgium, and France. In 1939, Hitler violated the 'Non-aggression Pact' made with Stalin and attacked Soviet Russia so Stalin declared war against German.

Exercise Q.5 | Q 2 | Page 71

Answer the following question in detail

Why did Indian people participate in the national movement in great numbers?

Solution: (i) India was a colony of British during wartime. England started exploiting their colonies to meet the needs of war.

(ii) During wartime England felt an increasing need for manpower and money.

Therefore, the British Government began recruiting army personnel from India.

(iii) At times the recruitment was enforced on Indians.

(iv) Extra taxes were levied on Indians for raising funds. Taxes on trade and industries were raised.

(v) During the war period prices of essential commodities went up. Indians suffered from the problems of inflation, hike in prices, increasing unemployment caused by the industrial recession.

(vi) Indians could see that the exploitative rule of the British was responsible for this miserable state of affairs.

(vii) Hence, Indians from all strata of society, workers, farmers, and the middle class joined in large numbers in the national movements against the British rule.