What warning did Shivaji Maharaj issue to the Deshmukh of Rohida Valley?

Solution:

1. Shivaji Maharaj constantly struggled against his enemies in his quest of establishing the Swaraj. His subjects also suffered a lot because of such enemy invasions.
2. During these times, Maharaj took the utmost care to protect his ryot (people).
3. During Shaistakhan's campaign, he had strictly warned the Deshmukh of the Rohida valley to visit every village and shift people to a safe place down the ghats, without any delay.
4. He further warned him that if he failed to do so, the Mughals would take the people prisoner and it would be seen as his wrong doing.

What warning did Shivaji Maharaj issue to his soldiers to avoid any loss to the ryot?

Solution:

1. Shivaji Maharaj cared about his ryot and took every measure to prevent any loss to them. He issued strict warnings to his soldiers for their safety.
2. Generally, in case of a war, during the sowing-growing-reaping period of crops, the movements of army interfered with the work of farmers, causing a huge loss to the farmers.
3. Moreover, soldiers would cut off and take away the standing crops or would destroy them and rob the houses of the farmers. Shivaji Maharaj prohibited such actions ensuring that his soldiers caused no harm to his ryot.
4. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj also wrote a letter in 1674 CE to his military officers regarding this. This shows how minutely he thought about the welfare of the ryot under his Swaraj.

How do we know that the religious policy of Shivaji Maharaj was that of tolerance?

Solution:

The following instances show that the religious policy of Shivaji Maharaj was that of tolerance:

1. In spite of Shivaji Maharaj's enemies being Islamic powers, he considered the Muslims in the Swaraj as his own subjects and trusted them deeply. The following are a testimony to the same:
  - a. Siddi Ibrahim was a trusted servant in his army.
  - b. Siddi Hilal was a Sardar in his army.
  - c. Daulatkhan was an important officer in the navy of Swaraj.
2. He even continued the facilities given to the Muslim places of worship that belonged to the captured enemy territories.
3. The written work by historian Khafikhan on the tolerant religious policy of Shivaji Maharaj states that: "Shivaji Maharaj had framed strict rules for his soldiers that during the campaigns, they should not harm a mosque. In case, if they came in possession of a copy of the Holy Quran, they should hand over the same, with reverence, to a Muslim."

Explain Shivaji Maharaj's policy regarding the army.

Solution:

1. Shivaji Maharaj maintained a strict discipline in his army.
2. He was extremely particular about timely payment of their salaries. The salaries were paid in the form of cash rather than in the form of jagirs.
3. He strictly ordered the army that all valuables collected by them during their enemy campaigns had to be deposited with the Government.
4. He honoured the soldiers for their bravery in any campaign, looked after the maintenance of the families of those who died in battle, took care of his own wounded soldiers, and also the enemy soldiers who were captured or had surrendered.

Thus, Shivaji Maharaj followed the principles of discipline, honesty, and humanity in his policy regarding the army.
