English workshop | Q 3 | Page 26

Write down in your own words the differences between the following stages of a man's life.

1. 2nd stage and the 4th
2. 3rd stage and 5th stage
3. 1st stage and 7th (last) stage

SOLUTION

1. 2nd stage and the 4th-

The second stage is that of a school boy, complaining and crying. He goes to school early in the morning, with a well-scrubbed, shining face. He carries his school bag and creeps slowly, like a snail, unwilling to go to school.

The fourth stage is that of an aggressive soldier, bearded like a leopard and full of oaths. He is jealous where his honour is concerned and is quick to quarrel. He is ambitious, and does useless things for his reputation, even endangering his life for it.

2. 3rd stage and 5th stage:

The third stage is that of a lover, who is breathless and sighing with passion. He sings sad songs to the beauty of his lover.

The fifth stage is that of a mature middle-aged man with a round belly. He is stern and formal and full of wisdom. He is keen on justice, is fat, and has opinions on bribery, a system which was prevalent at that time. He is full of wise sayings and gives modern examples.

3. 1st stage and 7th (last) stage:

The first stage is that of an infant, crying weakly and throwing up in his nurse's arms. He is unaware of what is happening around him. The baby, at this stage, is without teeth, without vision, without taste and without anything.

The last stage of all, which ends this eventful life, is when man becomes senile and enters his second childhood. He is again unaware of what is happening around him. This final stage is when he is once more without teeth, without vision, without taste and without anything.

Pick out lines that contain Imagery (a picture created in the mind by using words) of the following people.

- a. School boy - _____
(2nd stage) - _____
- b. Soldier - _____
(4th stage) - _____
- c. Judge - _____
(5th stage) - _____

- d. Senior citizen - _____
(6th stage) - _____

SOLUTION

- a. School boy (2nd stage)-
1. The whining schoolboy, with his satchel and shining morning face
2. creeping like a snail unwillingly to school.
- b. Soldier (4th stage)-
1. Full of strange oaths and bearded like the pard
2. Jealous in honour, sudden and quick in quarrel.
- c. Judge (5th stage)-
1. In fair round belly with good capon lined
2. With eyes severe and beard of formal cut
- d. Senior citizen (6th stage)-
1. His youthful hose, well-saved, a world too wide
2. For his shrunk shank6. Think and write on your own.

English workshop | Q 5 | Page 26

You will notice that there is no Rhyme-scheme in the poem. It appears similar to the poem 1.1 'Where the Mind is Without Fear' by Tagore.

However, Tagore's poem has no steady rhythm/meter either it is called Free Verse. Shakespeare uses lines with a steady rhythm of 5 beats in each. It is termed as Blank Verse. (No rhyme-scheme but uniformity in rhythm) Copy the lines from "Ánd all the men and women merely players" to "sudden and quick in quarrel". Put a stress mark on each of the syllables stressed in the lines as - for example, And all the men and women merely players;

SOLUTION

Do it yourself.

English workshop | Q 6. (a) | Page 26

Think and write on your own.

What is the theme/central idea of this poem?

SOLUTION

The theme of this poem is the cycle of life. It tells us how one starts out an infant, helpless and without understanding, and ends the same way. without being aware of what is happening around one.

English workshop | Q 6. (b) | Page 26

Think and write on your own.

Which two stages of man, described by Shakespeare, sound humorous? Say why.

SOLUTION

The second and third stages are humorous. One can just imagine the school boy, complaining and whining, creeping to school slowly with a well-scrubbed and shining face. The third stage, where the lover sighs loudly and sings sad poems and songs, is also humorous.

English workshop | Q 6. (c) | Page 26

Think and write on your own.

The last (7th) stage of life sounds very sad and miserable. How can you make old age also cheerful and happy?

SOLUTION

The first stage is that of an infant, crying weakly and throwing up in his nurse's arms. He is unaware of what is happening around him. The baby, at this stage, is without teeth, without vision, without taste and without anything.

The last stage of all, which ends this eventful life, is when man becomes senile and enters his second childhood. He is again unaware of what is happening around him.

This final stage is when he is once more without teeth, without vision, without taste and without anything.

Read the summary of the play 'As You Like It' by William Shakespeare using the Internet. Find out which character has narrated the above poem and on what occasion. Also, make a list of all the characters of the play.

SOLUTION

The character who has narrated the above poem in the play 'As You Like It' by William Shakespeare is Jacques. He narrates it in Act II, Scene VII in reply to an idea given by Orlando.

Some of the other characters in the play are: Celia, Rosalind, Orlando, Oliver, Duke Senior, Duke Frederick, Touchstone, etc.

English workshop | Q 9 | Page 27

Read the poem again and write an appreciation of the poem in paragraph format.

SOLUTION

The poem 'All the World's a Stage' by William Shakespeare is taken from Shakespeare's play 'As you like it'. It is a monologue (a loud speech to oneself) by one of the characters in the play. In this poem Shakespeare compares life to a stage. He has divided life into seven stages, each having its own varied qualities and features. The theme of the poem is the cycle of life. It tells us how one starts out an infant helpless, without understanding, and ends the same way, without being aware of what is happening around one.

The poem is written in blank verse i.e. there is no rhyme scheme, but there is a steady rhythm of five beats in each line. There are many figures of speech like Simile, Alliteration and Repetition, but the one that stands out is Metaphor. In the lines 'All the world's a stage. And all men and women are merely players', there is an implied comparison between two different things.

The special feature of the poem is the imagery. Many of the lines create a picture before our eyes and help us to imagine the seven stages in man's life. The narrative style used by the poet gives continuity to the poem, where one stage smoothly goes into the next. This is one of the most famous and quoted poems of Shakespeare. It is entirely metaphorical. My favourite line is 'All the world's a stage, And all men and women are merely players'. I like this line because it describes correctly how we must look at life. Like the poem because it shows us the cycle of life, of which everyone is a part.
