

6. Adjectives

ADJECTIVES AND THEIR DIFFERENT FORMS

POSITIVE

Clever
Heavy
Hot

COMPARATIVE

Cleverer
Heavier
Hotter

SUPERLATIVE

Cleverest Heaviest Hottest

Comparative formed by adding '-er'

Superlative formed by adding '-est'

Beautiful
Difficult

More beautiful
Less difficult

Most beautiful
Least difficult

Comparative formed by adding more/less

Superlative formed by adding most/least

Good
Much
Bad

Better
More
Worse

Best
Most Worst

Irregular Adjectives

POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES

They are the possessive forms of personal pronouns

They are immediately followed by a noun

Your book is lying on the table.

My phone is with the teacher.

Her parents are out of town.

Their performance was liked by all.

ADJECTIVES

Quick

Modern

Intelligent

Bright

Words that describe a noun or a pronoun

QUALITY

QUANTITY

NUMBER

Of what kind?

How much?

How many?

Geeta is a good girl.

Our neighbour is asking for some sugar.

I have fifteen pencils.

Indian tea is famous all over the world.

You can take all the jewellery.

Tarun was the first to complete the test.

