

Chapter-6

Worksheet-1

Choose the correct option:

1. Mauna Kea (Hawaii) in the _____ is an undersea mountain.
 - a. Indian Ocean
 - b. Pacific Ocean
 - c. Atlantic Ocean
 - d. Arctic Ocean
2. Which of these is a landform?
 - a. The Mountains
 - b. The Plains
 - c. The Plateaus
 - d. All of these
3. The movement taking place inside the earth is known as:
 - a. Internal process
 - b. External process
 - c. Wind action
 - d. Water action
4. Which type of mountains are formed due to lava deposition?
 - a. The Mountains
 - b. The Plains
 - c. The Plateaus
 - d. All of these
5. Ooty in South India is a _____.
 - a. Coastal area
 - b. Desert are
 - c. Hill area
 - d. Plain area
6. Which type of mountains are formed due to collision of two plates of the Earth?
 - a. The Mountains
 - b. The Plains
 - c. The Plateaus
 - d. All of these
7. Which of these is one of the oldest plateaus?

- a. Tibetan plateau
 - b. Deccan plateau
 - c. East African plateau in Kenya
 - d. Western plateau of Australia
8. The wearing away of the Earth's surface is called _____.
- a. Erosion
 - b. Deposition
 - c. Both a and b
 - d. None of these
9. Himalayas are example of _____.
- a. Old mountain
 - b. Fold mountain
 - c. Block mountain
 - d. None of these
10. A plateau is an elevated _____ land.
- a. Pointed
 - b. Rectangle
 - c. Flat
 - d. Curved

Answer the following Questions.

- 11. Define the term landforms.
- 12. What is the difference between a mountain and a plateau?
- 13. What are the different types of mountains?
- 14. How are mountains useful to man?
- 15. How are plains formed?
- 16. Why are the river plains thickly populated?
- 17. Why are mountains thinly populated?
- 18. Write a few features of mountains.
- 19. What are the features of plateaus?
- 20. What are the major landforms? Write about them in brief.

